

Howard A. Rosenblum is a Senior Attorney at Equip for Equality, a nonprofit organization designated as Illinois' Protection and Advocacy entity, after nearly ten years as an associate attorney with Monahan & Cohen, where he focused his legal practice in the areas of disability rights, mental health issues, and special education, as well as probate law and nonprofit corporate practice. He has provided numerous workshops on the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and other laws impacting the rights of people with disabilities.

He successfully litigated an ADA case guaranteeing communication access, including sign language interpreters, within municipal jails to deaf and hard-of-hearing persons in Hanson v. Sangamon County Sheriff's Department(C.D. Ill. 1998).

Mr. Rosenblum co-founded and is the Board Chairperson of the Midwest Center on Law and the Deaf, dedicated to ensuring equal access to the legal system for deaf and hard-of-hearing people. He also currently serves on the boards of the Illinois Telecommunication Access Corporation, the American Deafness and Rehabilitation Association (ADARA), and the National Organization of Nurses with Disabilities (NOND).

Mr. Rosenblum received his law degree from Illinois Institute of Technology Chicago-Kent College of Law (1992), and his Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Engineering from the University of Arizona (1988).

